CONSTITUTION OF THE WISCONSIN

ENTOMOLOGICAL SOCIETY

ARTICLE I: NAME

Section 1: This organization shall be known as the Wisconsin Entomological Society.

ARTICLE II: PURPOSE

Section 1: It shall be the purpose of this society to promote the study of entomology in all its branches, especially as it applies to Wisconsin and the surrounding states; to facilitate and encourage the exchange of specimens and ideas by both professional and amateur entomologists, to publish periodicals and other occasional papers on entomology and related fields; to promote conservation in the field of Entomology, and to do that which shall promote the general purpose of this society.

ARTICLE III: MEMBERSHIP

Section 1: There shall be two membership classes as follows:

A. Individual Membership: Any individual who subscribes to the aforementioned purpose of this society shall be eligible for voting membership.

B. Organizational Membership: Any foundation, business or industrial firm, corporation, school, club, or other group which subscribes to the aforementioned purpose of this society and supports the society's activities by an annual contribution shall be eligible for organizational membership in the society. Each such member group may designate a delegate to represent it in the affairs of the society. This delegate shall possess all rights of individual membership.

Section 2: All persons who have made application for membership and have paid the dues of this society shall be members in good standing.

Section 3: Members who are one year in arrears in the payment of dues shall be dropped from the rolls of this society.

ARTICLE IV: OFFICERS, EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

Section 1: The officers of this society shall consist of a president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer.

Section 2: That the executive council shall consist of the officers of this society, the immediate past president, and three elected councilmen.

Section 3: The executive council shall conduct the business of this society subject only to the decisions on policy by the membership.

ARTICLE V: DUTIES OF THE OFFICERS

Section 1: The president shall preside at all meetings. He shall appoint all special committees and be chairman of the executive council. He may also appoint delegates to other societies or conventions.

- Section 2: The vice-president shall assume the duties of the president in case of death, resignation, absence, or disability.
- Section 3: The secretary shall keep the minutes of the meetings of the society; shall give notice of meetings; shall attend to the general correspondence; shall keep all records and files of the society; and shall generally perform all duties required of a secretary and those duties delegated to him.
- Section 4: The treasurer shall receive all monies for the society and deposit them in the name of the society in such banking institutions as the society or the executive board shall direct. He shall pay therefrom all bills and obligations of the society. He shall keep an account of all monetary transactions and shall annually, or upon demand by the president of the executive council submit statement of the financial affairs of the society.
- Section 5: That the officers shall hold office for a term of one year.
- Section 6: That the three elected councilmen shall not be officers of the society. That the terms of the elected councilmen shall be for three years and shall be staggered so that only one councilman's term shall expire in any calendar year.
- Section 7: That at the expiration of his term of office, each officer shall deliver to his successor all books, papers, funds and vouchers belonging to the society.
- Section 8: That unexpired terms in executive council may be filled by appointment by executive council. The appointed officer or councilman shall complete the term of office.

ARTICLE VI: MEETINGS

- Section 1: Meetings, field trips and conventions may be held as directed by the by-laws.
- Section 2: An annual meeting may be held at such a time and place as the executive council shall determine.

ARTICLE VII: PUBLICATIONS

- Section 1: The society may publish a periodical and occasional papers, or checklists as the society shall deem advisable.
- Section 2: The president or the executive council may appoint an editor or editors as may be necessary to issue publications, occasional papers or checklists.

ARTICLE VIII: ACTIVITIES AND DISSOLUTION

- Section 1: The society shall be organized and operated exclusively for scientific and educational purposes, and shall not be organized or operated for profit. No part of the net earnings of the society shall or may under any circumstances inure to the benefit of any individual. No substantial part of the society shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation. The society shall not participate in, or intervene in, any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Section 2: Upon dissolution of the society, the officers shall distribute the assets to one or more organizations that meet the limitations prescribed in Section 1.

ARTICLE IX: AMENDMENTS

Section 1: This constitution may be amended, altered or repealed by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any regular meeting or the annual meeting. A copy of each proposed amendment shall be presented at the meeting preceding the meetings at which the amendment is voted upon.

Section 2: The by-laws of this society may be amended, altered or repealed by a majority vote of the members present at the annual meeting.

BY LAWS OF THE WISCONSIN ENTOMOLOGICAL SOCIETY

ARTICLE I: DUES

Section 1: The annual dues for members of this society shall be set annually by the executive council and shall entitle the member to a subscription to the periodical published by the society. The society may charge any reasonable fees and charges for other publications.

ARTICLE II: MEETINGS OF THE MEMBERSHIP

Section 1: Meetings shall be held bimonthly from October through June and at such other times as the executive council shall determine.

Section 2: The fiscal year of this society shall begin on October 1 and shall end on the next September 30.

Section 3: The financial records of this society shall be audited by the Auditing Committee after each fiscal year and prior to the annual meeting.

Section 4: The annual meeting shall be held in October or November, the date and place to be determined by the Executive Council. Elections of officers shall be held at the annual meeting.
